Craniosacral: Riding the Wave, Touching Stillness, Level 1

Craniosacral Work with a Biodynamic Perspective

This class introduces sacred touch, the practice of deeply listening with our hearts and hands from a place of compassionate stillness. Learn the structural elements and the fluid dynamics and the fluid dynamics of the craniosacral system. Hands-on techniques will sensitize our hands to the motion and stillness as expressed by the tidal movement of the Breath of Life in the body.

First in the series of four craniosacral workshops for certification:
